60 MINUTES

07/01/01 "Why So Expensive?"- a report on problems resulting from the rising cost of prescription drugs in the U.S., focusing on the plight of senior citizens, many of whom have no health insurance to offset the cost of medication they need to keep them alive. As a last resort, some of these seniors are traveling to Canada or Mexico where the same drugs are sold at a fraction of the price. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein) (OAD: 10/17/99)
"Officer Young"- Cornel Young, Jr. an off-duty police officer and son of the highest-ranking minority officer in Providence, R.I., was shot and killed by two white police officers during an altercation at an all-night restaurant. The white officers claim that they did not recognize Young who, with his gun drawn, was coming to their assistance. Although the police officers involved were not charged with any criminal action, Young's mother Leisa, has filed a 20 million dollar lawsuit against the city of Providence. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 11/19/00)
"The Orchestra"- a report on the Venezuelan National System of Youth Orchestras and Choirs, a private program designed to give free instruments and music lessons to the poor children of Venezuela. The program's goal is to produce good musicians and good citizens. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 11/19/00)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The Bronx Zoo" - Andy visits the zoo (OAD: 04/27/97)

07/08/01 "The Boy Scouts" - last summer the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Boy Scouts have the legal right to exclude avowed homosexuals. The decision has stirred a heated debate involving those who charge that a policy of exclusion is fundamentally wrong, and others who charge that homosexuality is immoral and as such violates the basic code of Scouting. (C: Lesley Stahl - Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 04/01/01)
"Negative About Affirmative Action"- three white students charge in a lawsuit that the University of Michigan denied them entry but enrolled black students who they say were less qualified academically. Critics charge that using race as a standard for admissions is illegal, while Michigan University spokesmen claim that it the only way to achieve diversity. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson) (OAD: 10/29/00)
"Michael Tilson Thomas"- an interview with Michael Tilson Thomas, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and the only American-born conductor of a major U.S. orchestra. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner) (OAD: 10/01/00)
Andy Rooney Topic: why can't they have uniform electrical cords for appliances? (OAD: 11/26/00)

07/15/01 "Sleepless In The Cockpit"- a report on pilot fatigue as a cause of crashes and near crashes involving commercial airlines. Because of a loophole in FAA regulations, airlines can require pilots to stay on duty indefinitely when there are unforeseen delays, such as bad weather or air traffic. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 10/15/00)
"Mel Brooks On Broadway"- interview with actor/producer Mel Brooks about "The Producers," the Broadway musical based on his Academy Award-winning film, and the impact of his Jewishness on his life and work. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis) (OAD: 04/15/01)
"Wall Street Whiz Kid"- 16-year-old Jonathan Lebed made close to a million dollars trading on the stock market. The SEC claimed that his strategy -- which consisted of buying stock, hyping it on the Internet and then selling it when the price soared -- constituted securities fraud. Jonathan has negotiated an out-of-court settlement with the SEC but may still face criminal charges. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson) (OAD: 10/22/00)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Drink Up" - the popularity of soft drinks (OAD: 03/18/01)

07/22/01 "Made To Order"- a report on people who go to sperm banks requesting sperm from donors with certain physical and mental characteristics in order to produce an ideal child. Critics charge that the high cost of this kind of selection will make it an option only for the wealthy, while proponents say that it's quite normal for parents to want to give their children advantages. (C: Morley Safer - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 10/22/00)

"Com Millionaires?"- a report on the failure of a growing number of Internet companies, including an interview with Jim Nesfield, a 'vulture' capitalist who looks for companies that are distressed or bankrupt and buys their assets as cheaply as possible and then re-sells them at a profit. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson) (OAD: 12 10/00)

"Mammoni"- a report on "mammoni" (mama's boys), Italian men in their 30s and 40s with jobs, girlfriends and disposable income, who still live at home and are waited on by their mothers. The custom has become so prevalent that Italy's birthrate is one of the world's lowest. Includes an interview with sociologist Franco Ferrarotti. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 03/04/01)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Visitors" - Andy looks at tourists (OAD: 06/07/98)

07/29/01 "On Line U"- while a number of Internet businesses are bottoming out and shutting down, on-line education is flourishing. Proponents claim that it enables students...many of the older and with full-time jobs... to earn degrees when and where they want via the Internet. Critics charge that there is a downside -- lack of classroom interaction and the possibility that the value of a degree will be diminished. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 02/18/01)

"Femme Fatale"- and interview with French film legend Jeanne Moreau (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jim Jackson) (OAD: 11/27/94)

"Whose Body Is It Anyway?" - the recent announcement of the first analysis of the human genome project has focused attention on the question of whether the biotech industry has the ethical right to patent these genes. Critics argue that genes are not inventions but products of nature, while proponents claim that patent protection promotes discovery. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 02/25/01)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Couches" - Andy looks at the offices of 60 MINUTES Correspondents and executive producer (OAD: 05/21/00)

48 HOURS

- 07/05/01 "For Better Or Worse"- a report on marriage, following the lives of three couples:...Peter and Kari Tandy, Anthony and Loni Labrocca and Tim and Stephanie Farrell...who married in Minneapolis in June 1994. Includes comments by a panel of observers: Dr. Drew Pinsky, health and relationship expert; Ellen Fein co-author of The Rules of Marriage, herself recently separated; and Anne Meara, the actress/comedienne who has been married to Jerry Stiller for nearly 50 years, who tried to predict the outcome and discussed the reasons why two couples remained together while the third opted for divorce. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Jane Clayson - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 07/09/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Accused"- in 1996 the car which Sheila Bryan was driving with her mother as passenger accidentally veered off the road and into a ditch. After the Omega, Georgia woman left her unconscious mother to seek help the car burst into flames. Sheila was charged with her mother's murder -- then tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. After a year in prison, her conviction was overturned for lack of a motive, but the court did not throw out the expert testimony of the investigators who said the fire was arson. At Sheila's retrial, three and a half years after the incident, the state's experts were countered by Gerald Hurst, a fire expert who claimed there was no reason to label the blaze arson. A jury found her not guilty and she was acquitted of all charges. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Gail Zimmerman) (OAD: 04/27/00)
- 07/12/01 "Perfect Match" - edited rebroadcasts of: "Russian Roulette" (OAD as "Matchmaker" 02/14/00)- Dan McGovern and Ed Lee, who went on a matchmaking tour of Russia organized by a company called European Connections; "Forbidden Love"- Jason Johnson, a U.S. Marine stationed in the Persian Gulf fell in love with Meriam Al Khalifa, a member of the royal family of Bahrain. The couple managed to escape to America but Meriam was arrested for entering the country illegally. Following her temporary release from jail, the couple married, but U.S. immigration officials have yet to decide whether she may remain. (C: Harold Dow - P: Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Patti Aronofsky, Susan Wiggins) (OAD: 10/19/00); "A Family's Shame"- a report on male-dominated societies in the Middle East and Asia, where women and girls who are perceived to have brought shame on their family's reputation can be at grave risk. - 07/16/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Ghosts of Mississippi"- a report on the investigation of a string of unsolved homicides in Columbus, Mississippi. 48 HOURS has been following the mystery since the end of 1998 when five elderly residents, all living within a mile of each other, were killed within 18 months. With no apparent motive or forced entry associated with the crimes, police say, a terrified community believes a serial killer is on the loose. To complicate the situation the town's police chief was imprisoned for embezzlement. His successor is still trying, with little success, to solve the killings. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Chuck Stevenson, Linda Kim) (OAD: 06/26/00)
- 07/19/01 "Rage"- explores the rise of anger in America, with reports on: Shirley Henson, an Alabama woman, charged with murder for the shooting death of Gena Foster, another motorist, after a highway confrontation; Tracey Glenn, a Texas woman who has trouble controlling her temper and who has enrolled in an anger-management clinic at the Cottonwood Treatment Center near Tucson, Arizona in an effort to save her marriage; 19-year-old Jonathan Burton, a passenger on a Southwest Airline flight who went out of control and was killed by fellow passengers who tried to subdue him (C: Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Jay Young, Marc Goldbaum, Marcelena Spencer) (OAD: 11/16/00)

- 07/20/01 "Murder They Wrote: While Innocents Slept" - a report based on the book While Innocents Slept by Adrian Havill which follows a murder case involving the deaths of two infants which were originally attributed to SIDS (Sudden Infant Death Syndrome). A new investigation instigated by Missy Anastasi, mother of one of the infants, unearthed new evidence which pointed to her ex-husband Garrett Wilson, a successful salesman of musical instruments and four-times married father of both infants. Wilson who had taken out life insurance policies on both babies, was tried for the 1987 murder of his son, Garrett Michael, found guilty and sentenced to prison. A trial for the 1981 death of an infant daughter, Brandi Jean, has been postponed. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Sophia M. Kim)
- 07/23/01 "Kidnapped"- In 1989, Cheryl Lamare's two-year-old daughter, Jamie, was kidnapped by her father, Stan Voulgareilis, and taken to his native Greece. For nine years, Lamare has done everything in her power to get Jamie back, but to no avail. In despair, she hired an ex-commando and his wife, Don and Judy Feeney, along with a team of Greek detectives, to help retrieve her daughter -- by force, if necessary. 48 HOURS has been covering the story for nearly a year and follows Lamare and her group through the secret planning and abortive rescue efforts that follow. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 09/17/98)
- 07/26/01 "Ecstasy"- a broadcast focusing on the popular drug Ecstasy, featuring reports on: Kati Stephenson, whose first experience with Ecstasy at 16 led to cocaine, crack and heroin. Today, a recovering addict, Katie counsels other teens; Sue Stevens, a single mother who claims that Ecstasy helped her and her terminally ill fiance cope with his illness; Shari Rich, a 19-year-old college student, who died after taking adulterated Ecstasy; DanceSafe, a controversial organization which offers to test Ecstasy for adulterants; Ari Jackson, a college student who was arrested in Tallahassee, Florida for dealing Ecstasy and now faces a prison sentence. Broadcast is part of a cooperative project with MTV News, which will also broadcast a report on Ecstasy on Nov. 30. (48 HOURS Correspondents: Harold Dow, Peter Van Sant, Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts - MTV Correspondent: John Norris - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Doug Longhini, Abra Potkin, Alec Sirken, Tom Forman) (OAD: 11/30/00)
- 07/27/01 "Murder They Wrote: The End Of The Dream"- in the second "Murder They Wrote," based on the book The End of The Dream by Ann Rule, a former Seattle police officer and bestselling true-crime author, 48 HOURS reports on Scott Scurlock, whose colorful career started with the manufacture and sale of illegal drugs and ended with bank robbery. The charismatic Scurlock, known as "Hollywood" because of his flamboyant style and effective use of disguises in the commission of crimes, successfully eluded capture for four years while effortlessly robbing 18 banks. Finally apprehended following the robbery of a Seattle bank, Scurlock took his own life rather than face imprisonment. Includes an interview with author Ann Rule. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Peter Doyle)

60 MINUTES II

- 07/03/01 "The First Casualty"- a report on the mystery surrounding the fate of Lt. Commander Michael Scott Speicher, the first American casualty arising from the Persian Gulf War. The Navy pilot, shot down over Iraq, was officially declared killed in action in 1991; several years later his plane's wreckage was discovered, along with evidence that Speicher had ejected and might have survived the crash. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Christine Spolar) (OAD: 05/02/00)
- "See How They Run"- report on new prosthetic devices for amputee athletes and the records for speed and endurance being set at the Paralympics, a competition restricted to disabled athletes. The devices, made of NASA-inspired materials including carbon fiber and titanium, enable disabled people to perform as well as, and some claim, even better than their able-bodied counterparts. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Norman Green, Miriam Weintraub) (OAD: 10/31/00)
